Origin: Paul Schockemohle purchased De Luxe (Dow Jones) as a two-year-old stallion and prepared him for the P.S.I. auction. With the legendary sire line of Donnerhall and De Luxe's ability to perform the Grand Prix movements effortlessly, it was no surprise that he became the top selling horse. De Luxe's sire, De Niro a Donnerhall/Akzent II son, scored 145.41 and was declared "Best New Generation Grand Prix Dressage Horse". Grand-sire Donnerhall holds the highest dressage breeding value index (271) and was a stellar dressage horse. Akzent II was regarded for producing rideability. De Luxe's dam's sire, Andiamo is not only a Grand Prix Jumper, but also competed at I-1 Dressage as well. He is ranked 8th in Dressage producing and 10th in Combined Jumping and Dressage. Licensed by five Verbands his offspring were best sellers at elite auctions. De Luxe endows foals with light, free action, superb conformation and unparalleled disposition making them extremely easy to train. "De Luxe is the most beautiful De Niro son" according to Johannes Westendarp.

Performance Record: Father of licensed sons in Germany, Champion of Devon, Champion at Morven Park, Champion at Lexington and Reserve Champion USDF Breeders Finals at Devon, In Germany he was very successful as an upper level dressage horse.

Breeding/Progeny Record: His Licensed Oldenburg son Dream Rubin by De Luxe recently won his tenth Prix St. Georges competition in Germany for his owners the State Stud of Moritzburg. Dream Rubin was winner of the dressage section of his 70-day test at Neustadt/Dosse in 2006 with an index of 134.61 and qualified the Bundeschampionat as a 5-Year-Old. De Luxe produced the East Germany Champion Colt, a Bundeschampion, Champion foals and multiple Foals of Distinction.
